A Message from Our President

Hi All!

I hope that your summer has been fun filled and either busy or relaxing as is appropriate to your business/work model! We are up and running for a terrific fall and winter!

On September 12, we will have our first "post-summer" meeting, a print competition! Please note that this is a week earlier than usual because of Yom Kippur falling on the third Wednesday of September. Remember that images entered in the Print of the Year Competition in November must be the same version of the image that was presented at one of the regular print competitions. If you have been working on an image that was presented earlier in the year and want to enter an improved version of it for Print of the Year in November, be sure to enter your improved version in September! Reworked or new, get those images in and go for the Blue! Remember that you can send in up to SIX images!

Several of our members entered images into the PPA IPC (International Print Competition) with outstanding results!

* Sherrie Fryxell - Entered four images. One was merited and another, "Almost There," was accepted into the PPA Loan Collection!

* Mark Kovner - Entered four images; one merited.

* Steve Moses - Entered four images; two of them were merited.

Summer Workshop this year was absolutely amazing! Sherrie Fryxell, Steve Lynch, Vickie Muller, Donald Schwartz, and Steve Moses were among the attendees from Hudson Valley. I attended the class with Rick Friedman and learned a great deal about Lighting on Location and making the lighting even more interesting with the use of gels and other accessories. We worked daily with models and creating sets with lights and backdrops. The days were long as we often worked into the evening with outdoor sets and mixing ambient sunset lighting with strobes.

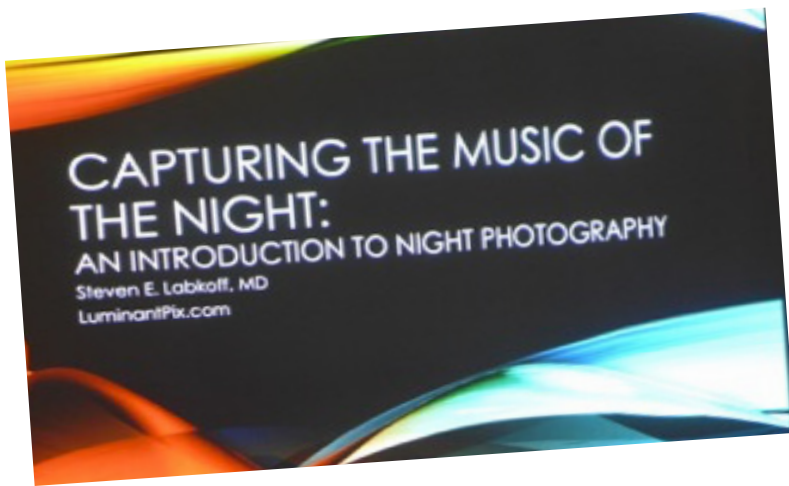

Info on the line-up for next year's Workshop is on the website: www.ppsnysworkshop.com.

At our October 17 meeting, the speaker will be Brian Ozegovich on "Selling Album Design and Making Money in Album Sales." Brian is a wedding photographer on Long Island whose studio does over 400 weddings a year.
